STAT

Your letter of 17 August 1972 to General Walters has been read with interest and referred to this office for reply.

We apologize for the delay in answering your letter, but apparently it had been lost in the mails. Due to the amount of time which has passed, would you advise us of your present location and status? If you are still interested in employment with this Agency, please let us know and we will refer your resume to appropriate Agency officials for review. We would be less than candid, though, if we did not inform you that our vacancies are very limited at this time due to reductions in our personnel strength.

Again we apologize for our delay in responding to your letter. We look forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

/s/ H. B. Fisher

Therefore, the prospect of specializing in this area is very appealing.

My undergraduate major field is political science; also, I have completed one year of study for an M. B. A. As a result, an assignment encompassing political or economic analysis would be beneficial to the intelligence agency and to me. I am hopeful of entering the Army for an extended period; however, a meaningful role with the civilian intelligence branch would be welcome. Enclosed is a brief summary of experiences related to [redacted] and the intelligence effort.
